* UE Faculty

Mary Heichelbech, a senior majoring in Music Performance, began studying the Suzuki Violin Method at age five. Now a student of Delmar Pettys, she is a member of the Owensboro Symphony, Evansville Philharmonic, and Evansville Chamber Orchestras, and has been concertmaster of the University Orchestra for the past four years. She is also the recipient of the Allene Herron, Romaine Benedict, and Presser Foundation Scholarship Awards, and for the past two summers was selected to participate in the Young Professional Quartet Seminar at Music Mountain, Connecticut with the Manhattan Quartet. Mary was recently chosen as a finalist in the Indiana Aspen Festival Scholarship Competition. She has soloed with the UE Orchestra twice before in her college career, and once with the Evansville Chamber Orchestra. She is a member of the Suzuki Talent Education faculty in the Institution for the Fine and Performing Arts.

James Goodhue is a junior Music Education major at the University of Evansville. An Owensboro native, James was a student of the bass clarinet at Owensboro High School and a member of the Kentucky All-State band for three years on that instrument. After entering the University of Evansville, James began studies on the B-Flat soprano clarinet in the spring of his freshman year. He has since been a member of numerous university ensembles including the band and orchestra and is presently a contract member of the Evansville Philharmonic and Owensboro Symphony Orchestras. James is a member of Phi Mu Alpha and student of Dr. David Wright.

Karen Lauer, a native of Evansville, is a senior voice student majoring in Music Education. She was the 1980 recipient of the Pat Roper Scholarship Award, a 1983 Sigma Alpha Iota Alumni Scholarship winner and was a 1983 Concerto Contest winner. She has been a member of Sigma Alpha Iota for five years.

For the past four summers, Karen has studied at the Interlochen National Music Camp. While there, she participated in the University of Michigan's Opera Workshop. Her performances have included L'Elisir d'Amore, A Game of Chance, Madame Butterfly, The Impressario and Suor Angelica. She has received opera coaching from Gary Glaze of New York, Jerry Langenkamp of Kansas State University and David Reubens of Cincinnati. Her voice instructor at Interlochen is H. Jay Thompson.

Miss Lauer was formerly a student of Dr. Paul Dove and is now a student of Marlene Rosen.

Karen teaches voice for the Institute for the Fine and Performing Arts.
